Toys Dolls Games

AS Xmas is the children's festival, and since toys are synonymous with the long-looked-for appearance of the mystic and beloved Santa Claus, a plentiful supply of dolls, games, and books should reward the expectancy and crown the merriment of youngsters on that happy day. The playtime of a child with its gay "make-believes" is always looked back upon with pleasure, and certain favorite toys are never forgotten. Toys for the playtime, games and books to help along the quiet hours, and dolls for any and all times are displayed in our Xmas Toy Shop in such profusion and attractiveness as to dispel the commercial atmosphere and turn the charming precincts into a fascinating Wonderland.

Xmas cheer pervades this department on the fourth floor, and a huge reserve stock will keep our Santa Claus well supplied with gifts for everybody.

Our W. & L. Dollar Doll.

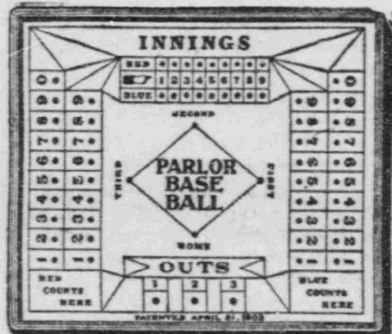

Made especially for us in Germany. It is not the largest doll we could get to sell for this popular price, but it is absolutely the best value obtainable in this country. It measures 22 inches in height, is full ball-jointed, has the finest quality bisque head, sewed wig of fine hair, moving eyes, exposed teeth, and the face is very beautiful and lifelike.

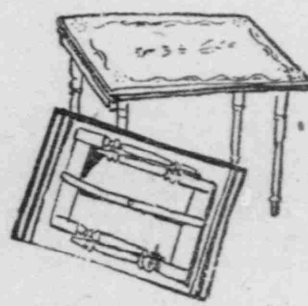

You are requested to examine this doll carefully.

Butterfly Push Toy, 25c.

Parlor Baseball Game, $1.00.

Folding Tables, 59c.
Value $1.00.

Steel Wagons, 25c.

Iron Dump Carts, 50c.

Automobiles, $5.00 to $25.00.

The Popular Game, "Diabolo."

WE have received a new shipment of the popular French game of "Diabolo," which has been all the rage this year in Paris, being played by old and young alike. The game, which is as simple as it is interesting, is only a sporting revival of the "Devil on Two Sticks" game, the origin of which is exceedingly ancient. It is one of the most interesting games ever put on the market. The practice of "Diabolo" is of itself an extremely attractive sport and one that develops the strength and muscles. Prices are 25c, 50c, $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00.

With Celluloid Diabolo and two pairs of rods, $3.50.

$1.00 Imported Teddy Bears, 69c each.

$1.00 Roller Skates, 59c a pair.

Retiring Japanese Ambassador Guest at Dinner.

BRAZILIAN ATTACHE TO LEAVE

Lieut. Col. Pederneras Ready for Extended European Tour for His Government—Netherlands Minister Returns to Washington Next Week. Miss Roosevelt to Entertain.

The retiring Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Aoki were the guests of honor at the dinner last night at their home in Sixteenth street.

Lieut. Col. Pederneras, military attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, will leave Washington Sunday night and sail Tuesday from New York for Europe, where he goes on an investigating tour in the interests of the smokiness powder plant Brazil is building. He will visit England, France, Germany, Italy, and Austria. His first stop will be Paris, where he will meet his wife, Mme. Pederneras, who has been staying there since last June.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco will give Lieut. Col. Pederneras a farewell dinner before his departure Sunday night.

The naval attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, Mr. de Aquino, has, with Mme. Aquino, arrived here for the winter, and taken an apartment at the Ontario. Mr. de Aquino will go to Hampton Roads today to say farewell to the officers of the fleet, who on their voyage will stop at Rio Janeiro.

The Netherlands Minister, Jonkheer van Swinderen, will return to Washington next week from Mexico, where he is also accredited and where he has been for the past week. He and Mme. van Swinderen will sail for Europe next month to spend some time on leave of absence.

Mrs. Roosevelt had a box party at the Belasco last night to see Southern play "Lord Dundreary." In the party were Justice and Mrs. Holmes, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, and Senator Lodge.

Others present were the Russian Ambassador, Baron Rosen; the Peruvian Minister and Mme. Pardo, the Naval Attaché of the French Embassy and Mme. de Blaupre, Mme. Godoy and Mme. Godoy, Baroness Moncheur, Mrs. Timmons, Controller of the Currency and Mrs. Ridgely, Mrs. Bromwell, Baron Ambrzy, Baron Haymerle, and Mr. do Amaral.

Mr. Royards, counselor of the Netherlands Legation, is also in Mexico, having accompanied the minister there.

Capt. Fournier, military attaché of the French Embassy, has been raised to the rank of major, and is receiving congratulations from his many friends with whom he is very popular.

The Mexican Ambassador and Mme. Creel were guests at a box party last night at the Belasco Theater to see Southern in Lord Dundreary. The hostess was Mrs. Alexander Shepard.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth is reported as still doing well and holding her own. She is expected to be quite well in a short time, and the President and Mrs. Roosevelt have sent out invitations for a young people's party at the White House for January 3, when the young friends of Miss Ethel will be entertained.

Mr. Charles Glover entertained at a stag dinner last night at his home in K street. Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks will, as usual, hold their large reception early in January for the members of the Senate. Mr. Robert Fairbanks, who is a sophomore at Yale, has arrived home for the Christmas holidays.

Gen. and Mrs. John W. Foster, who are giving a series of Saturday dinners, will entertain in such manner to-night.

Occupying boxes at the New National Theater last night to witness the performance of "Polly of the Circus" were Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, Secretary and Mrs. William Loeb, Jr., and a party of friends, Senator Philander C. Knox and friends, and Mr. Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather Bureau, and a party of friends.

Mrs. Thomas Hardy Tallaferra entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at her apartment at the Portsmouth. Among those invited to play were Mme. Pastor, wife of the first secretary of the Spanish Legation; Mrs. John K. Bartlett, of Baltimore; Mrs. Hazzard, Mrs. Eldridge Jordan, Mrs. John Tucker, Mrs. Edmund

Publish a Fourth Edition.
The Smithsonian Institution has published a fourth edition of "Meteorological Tables." This publication is in furtherance of a policy adopted as early as 1882 by Secretary Henry, two years after the establishment of the Smithsonian weather service. In the preparation of the volume the institution was aided by Prof. Alexander McAdie and Cleveland Abbe, of the United States Weather Bureau.
